

Eastside Concerned Citizens, Inc. Neighborhood Resident Meeting Minutes – February 9, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 11:05 am by our president, Mr. Freddie Patrick. A moment of silence was observed.

Community Resource Representatives Update:

Sanitation Department:

Sanitation – Donna Summers spoke about Operation Clean Sweep and requested to have Block Captains meet after the resident meeting to see designated pickups for their area.

Property Maintenance:

City official Inspector Hassel informed the group that the Blight Boot Camp procedures code was held on Saturday, February 9th. A few attended the event. The property next to the Ice House was written up and sent out to the owner as requested by resident, Ms. Roberts. The grass must be 10 inches high in order to cause grass to be cut by the City of Savannah. On the 19th of February at 10:00 am, ECCI Board Members along with the City of Savannah will be doing a ride through to point out negligent properties in the neighborhood that warrants concerns.

Brittany Star briefly discussed diabetic shoes and medical supplies. She stated that she had some brochures and cards to all residents to view.

A member of Asbury UM Church discussed the renovations of the church and asked members to visit and see challenges they are facing. She also stated that they plan to implement youth programs, brown bags and other resources for the community. She wanted ECCI to make the church a part of the growing community. The sanctuary seats 400 and have 50 members as of today. The church is located on the corner of Waters and Henry.

Announcements:

Senator Regina Thomas stated that it will be a prayer visual on February 16th at 2:00 pm at 124 West Anderson Street.

Carolyn Burks informed everyone of the February newsletter located on the back of the agenda. She also suggested that a suggestion box be placed at the front desk for all recommendations for the center.

Freddie mentioned to the group about the board members meeting on the 19th of February 10th at the center to do a tour of the neighborhood.

Freddie mentioned that Senior Day is scheduled for February 26th at 11:30 am. Lunch will be served to all attendance.

House of the month was Anthony C. Moultrie, Sr.

Door prizes were issued to residents with ECCI membership cards.

Meeting adjourned at 12:15 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Centra Lambert